

Royal Mint

12. August 1886.

Dear Sir,

I have the pleasure of acknowledging the receipt of your letter of yesterday's date, forwarding to me, at the request of the Hon. Daniel Fox, Superintendent of the Philadelphia Mint, a medal of himself struck at that Mint.

May I ask you to convey my best thanks to Mr Fox for his kind present, which will make a valuable addition to the Mint Museum,

and to assure him that,
should an opportunity arise,
it will give me much pleasure to reciprocate his kindness?

I return herewith Mr Fox's letter, and remain,

Dear Sir,
Yours sincerely,

C. W. Demarest
